FROM THE PASTOR:

-to everyone who contributed to the Catholic Communication Campaign

On 14 May 2015 Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila of Denver announced his decision to restore the order of the Sacrament of Initiation to the original order of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist in his Archdiocese for all Catholics baptized before the age of seven. This means the Archdiocese of Denver will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation and First Eucharist in third grade. One of his reasons for doing this is, as he said, "In an increasingly secular world, the reality is this: The souls of our children are the battleground." With the declining number of Christians in this country and around the world and the need to re-evangelize and re-catechize many of our current Catholics in this world of "anything goes and is okay", the fact remains—the sooner we give the gifts of the Holy Spirit to our member, the stronger the church will become.

The Liturgy requires many ministers. This week wish to focus on the ministry of the Usher and Hospitality Ministers. Inside you will find the Instructions for Ushers and Hospitality Ministers.

Today is the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Jesus was obedient to the Father and suffered death on the cross. But before he did this, Jesus established and sealed the New Covenant. The Lord shed his blood for us so that we could have hope of eternal redemption. During the Last Supper, Christ spoke of the blood of the covenant. We are reminded of this covenant every time we gather to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Pray for the consecration of Russia to Mary by the pope. May God bless you.

this world, but we are called to be His disciples. As a young adult, Jeff left the Catholic Church and became a Protestant Pastor for 12 years. After returning to the Catholic Church, he became a nationally known speaker who has helped thousands come to a clearer understanding of Scripture and our Faith.

Question #135: What is the relation between the Church and the Jews?

Jews are the "older brethren" of Christians, because God loved them first and spoke to them first. Jesus Christ as man is a Jew, and this fact unites us. The Church recognizes in him the Son of the living God, and this fact separates us. In awaiting the final coming of the Messiah we are one.

The Jewish faith is the root of our faith. The Sacred Scripture of the Jews, which we call the Old Testament, is the first part of our Sacred Scripture. The Judeo-Christian concept of man and morality, which is informed by the Ten Commandments, is the foundation of Western democracies. It is shameful that for hundreds of years Christians were unwilling to admit this close relation to Judaism and for pseudo-theological reasons helped foment an anti-Semitism that all too often had lethal effects. During the Holy Year 2000, Pope John Paul II expressly asked forgiveness for this. The Second Vatican Council clearly states that the Jews as a people cannot be charged with any collective guilt for the crucifixion of Christ.

LITURGICAL MATTERS

WHO IS WORTHY TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION? All Catholics in good standing with the Church are worthy to receive Holy Communion. "In good standing" means a person is in a proper relation with Christ and His Church and has been properly catechized. This includes being in a state of grace having celebrated the Reconciliation on a regular basis and thus free of all mortal sin [including cohabitating (living) with another person as if they were married, entering into marriage while still married but divorced without a Church Declaration of Nullity or death of the former spouse, use of artificial birth control]. The Church asks us to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a year so we may receive Holy Communion during the Easter Season [our "Easter Duty"] in a worthy manner. The Church calls us to do all we can to remain worthy to receive Holy Communion.

WHAT IS NFP?

FROM: "By any measure, natural family planning is a win" by Archbishop Joseph Naumann.

The church teaches that it is immoral for a married couple to use artificial contraception. Does this mean couples have no control over the number and spacing of their children?

The church does not instruct couples as to how many children they should have or when they should have children. It encourages couples to be generous in their openness to being co-creators with God of new human life. At the same time, the church urges couples to be responsible parents — not just giving life to children, but doing their best to care for the material, emotional and spiritual needs of their children. RESPECT FOR LIFE: "Pope Francis has captivated the world with his humility, warmth and compassion for each person. Vivid accounts of his tenderness for "the least of these"—the elderly, the imprisoned, those with disfiguring disabilities, the unborn, and many more—seize our attention. Why? At the heart of each of these interactions is a truth which resonates in our hearts, revealing to us something essential to understanding ourselves and our purpose. We are loved." — 2014 Respect Life Month statement, Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley, O.F.M. Cap., Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities

STEWARDSHIP: The focus of today's feast is the total self-giving of Jesus. The bishops' stewardship pastoral reminds us that "the glory and the boast of Christian stewards lie in mirroring, however poorly, the stewardship of Jesus Christ, who gave and still gives all He has and is, in order to be faithful to God's will and carry through to completion His redemptive stewardship of human beings and their world."

IF YOU ARE HOSPITALIZED: Because of privacy laws, when you or a family member is hospitalized, hospitals are not permitted to contact your pastor unless you inform the admitting personnel you wish to have your pastor notified. Otherwise, you or a member of your family should contact the parish office if you wish a visit. Please keep the parish office informed of your pastoral needs so your needs can be addressed in a timely fashion and you can be remembered in prayer.

USHER/HOSPITALITY MINISTERS INSTRUCTIONS

As an USHER/HOSPITALITY MINISTER you have chosen to be a REPRESENTATIVE of our parish. Your primary duties will be to welcome the people as they enter, to help find seating, to take up the collection, and to assist with distributing bulletins and preparing the worship space for the next Mass (putting away song books, removing any 'trash' from the pews, etc.) Often times you will be one of the first persons the people who are coming to Mass will meet. Most times they will be fellow parishioners. However, there will be some people who are from "out of town" who are visiting our fine parish. There may be some who have not been to church in awhile and there may be people who are coming to the Catholic Church for the first time in their lives. Thus, they all need to feel welcome to come in and worship with us. It will often be dependent on your greeting and welcome that will determine whether people will worship well or not and what kind of impression they will have of our parish. The FIRST IMPRESSION is so important.

Before Mass

- The best USHER/HOSPITALITY MINISTER is one who is well prepared and knows the ministry he or she is to carry out and participates in the celebration of the Eucharist (singing, responding, etc.).
- Please find a substitute if you are unable to serve when you are scheduled.
- Be rested and dress well.
- Arrive 15-20 minutes before Mass (20-30 minutes before Funerals and other special Masses such as Holy Week) to be ready to greet people, to recruit gift bearers, to assist setting up extra chairs, to assist with putting out "Reserved" signs, to hand out programs, and/or to assist with other special arrangements as needed.
- As people begin arriving, please greet each with a friendly "Hello," "Good Morning," "Welcome," or whatever is appropriate. You may also need to help people get into church, such as hold doors or assist people in wheelchairs.
- You may have to show people to their pews, especially if they arrive late and have a hard time spotting a place to sit. In this case, invite them to follow you to a pew. Please lead them up the aisle to a pew that is relatively empty. This may mean leading them to near the front of the church. There is no need to crowd people into pews. When you arrive at the pew you wish to seat them in, place your hand on the top of the pew ahead of the pew you wish to seat them in. The people then can bow to the altar or genuflect to the tabernacle and enter the pew. When they have entered their pew you may simply return to the entrance of the church. There is no need for you to bow before or after showing someone to a pew.

During Mass

- Remain near the inner doors of the church to welcome any late comers and to participate in the celebration in song, responses, etc. Please politely hold people from entering when the entrance procession of ministers has begun to prevent any interruption in the procession.

Once the Presider is processing up the aisle, you may allow the people to proceed.

- For the collection, each usher needs to have two baskets. After the Preparation of the Gifts Hymn is announced, please proceed to the front pew, bow, and begin passing the baskets. When all the people have had a chance to place their offering in a basket gather the collection into the one basket and then immediately give it and the bread and wine to the Gift Presenters so they can carry them up to the altar. In case, there are no Gift Presenters, you may draft a family or individuals. ONLY if there are no Gift Presenters available, you may present the gifts yourselves. When the Gift Presenters arrive at the altar, the Presider will be there to take the collection, wine, and bread from them in that order. They will then bow together and return to their places.
- During the Eucharist Prayer, please kneel [unless you have a physical disability] using the kneelers behind the last pew.
- At Communion time, you may help “direct traffic” for smooth flow and since you will usually be the last one in line, you may need to inform one of the Ministers of Holy Communion if there are any people who need to receive Communion who could not walk up to Communion due to physical difficulties if they are sitting in the last pew. (Before Mass you can direct these people to sit in the front pew if they are willing.)
- As the Recessional Song ends the Presider will hand you the bulletins for you to hand them out.

After Mass

- You may need to help put song books back on the pew holders, help some people out of the church, and/or to collect any debris, trash, “Reserved” signs, etc. to keep the church looking neat.
- You are then free to go!

Final Reminder: as an USHER/HOSPITALITY MINISTER you should be familiar with the facilities of the church building in case someone needs to use the restrooms or needs to be directed to the sacristy or any other room in the facility.

Thank you for serving as an USHER/HOSPITALITY MINISTER!
