Third Sunday of Easter

Next Sunday, April 17th, is World Day of Prayer for Vocations (also known as Good Shepherd Sunday) and in preparation for this event the Diocese is asking all of its parishioners to undertake a novena prayer for vocations. A Novena is a prayer that is prayed for nine consecutive days. For this novena, it will begin on Saturday, April 9th, leading up to and including April 17th.

Prayer cards are available in the back of our churches. In case you cannot find one, here is the prayer for your personal use. I hope that this united prayer effort helps more young men and women answer the call of Christ.

God our Father,
we beg You for an increase in religious vocations.
Help our people offer their lives in service to You.
Let them hear Your Spirit's invitation, and awaken in their hearts a desire to respond with courage, generosity, and joy.
Raise up from our families faithful leaders who will serve as deacons, priests, and consecrated religious, as we entrust to Your care all who seek to do Your will.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

If you're interested in further reading, here is the link for Pope Francis's message for the World Day of Prayer for Vocations: http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/vocations/upload/English-papa-francesco\_20151129\_53-messaggio-giornata-mondiale-vocazioni.pdf

Again, please begin the novena prayer this Saturday, April 9th and conclude it on Sunday, April 17th. If it should happen that you don't read about this until Sunday the 10th or you accidentally miss a day, don't skip or stop praying this novena! It's more important that we lift this up in prayer than we finish on a particular day or complete it in exactly nine days.

Thank you for your prayerful support,

Fr. Brad Pelzel

SCRIPTURE STUDY Thank you to all the people that shared and enjoyed the rediscover Jesus Book. We are starting Wednesday night at 6:00 p.m. Divine Mercy videos will be shown in the IC church library. Every one is welcome to come.
