Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God

At the beginning of the baptism ceremony, the priest welcomes the child by making the sign of the cross on the baby's forehead. He then invites the parents and godparents to do the same. I would like to encourage new parents - and in fact ALL parents – to continue that practice. When a Mom lays her child down in bed she can call to the dad to bless his child. Then she does the same. This blessing has great power.

While in seminary I knew a family who blessed their children every day. These parents, particularly the dad, were not great talkers. In fact, they were pretty private people, but they did bless their children every day and they had a bond with their children more powerful than words.

Today Moses instructs Aaron on how to give a blessing. The words are simple: The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

This "Levitical Blessing" has blessing has passed the test of time. The apostle Barnabas, who was a Levite, undoubtedly gave many people that blessing. St. Francis of Assisi used those words to bless others. Countless priests, deacons, ministers and parents have all employed the blessing. If you don't remember all the words, you can simply say "The Lord bless you." Or like the rather introverted parents I mentioned, you can just make the sign of the cross with your hand or your thumb. The blessing will have great power.

This blessing will not only help your child (or grandchild); but through them it will come back upon you. A person who blesses their child forms a strong bond and that bond can motivate a person to overcome many obstacles. A single Mom once told me about the rather miserable conditions she was working in. She had to take quite a bit of abuse from her boss and co-workers. But she didn't just walk off the job. She had two children who motivated her to make the sacrifice. When she blessed them at night, she knew the sacrifice was worth it. Eventually something better did come along – but even if it had not, she would have persevered. In her blessing them every day she saw them as her greatest earthly blessing.

As we begin the New Year, I ask you to make this resolution: Bless those who are close to you. At first it may be awkward to do so, but at least begin with a blessing in your heart. When you see your child – or whatever person you live with – say, "The Lord bless you." Little by little, you can extend that blessing to others: those you work with, your friends, people you meet as you go about your day. Your blessing will help them – and it will also help you. I would like to conclude with the very Levitical blessing that I used after I was ordained a priest:

May the LORD bless you and keep you! May the LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! And may the LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace! Amen.
