Saint Report

Candidates will provide a written report on the Saint they have chosen for their Confirmation name. The purpose of this report is to give the student the opportunity to learn about the life and work of their chosen Saint.

Although the research will be done on the Internet or with books, the report must be written in your own words. Please answer the following questions when constructing your report.

1. What is the name of your Saint and why did you choose him/her?
2. When and where did this person live? What were the dates of birth and death?
3. What type of family did they grow up in? Provide information about family members such as number of family members, type of occupation, devotion to the Church, etc.
4. What were the circumstances of their conversion experience? (What happened in their life to draw them to God?)
5. What was the talent of this Saint? What miracles are associated with your Saint?
6. What was the cause of their death?
7. Is your Saint a Patron Saint? What is he/she a Patron Saint of? (See the Saint list for help.)
8. Is there a Shrine to your saint? If so, where is it/are they located?
9. Is your Saint incorrupt? If so, where is the body located?
